

PIRAEUS SECURITIES

Piraeus Securities retains a leading position across the entire spectrum of brokerage services. From equity trading on the Athens Exchange and on all major exchanges worldwide, through to offering a complete suite of products and services in all Cash and Derivatives markets.

Noted for innovation, Piraeus Securities has introduced state-of-the-art technology in every department, providing solutions valued both by institutional and individual clients. Piraeus Securities has a strong track record among domestic and international investors for accurate analysis on macro and corporate fundamentals as well as a reputation for successful order execution and timely settlement & clearing.

As a member of Greece's leading banking group, Piraeus Securities is a domestic leader of all MiFID compliance procedures & processes across all operations and activities.

The Company's Equity Research Department combines a deep understanding of individual companies and global markets. Our focus remains firmly fixed on providing actionable research that delivers the right idea at the right time. Long considered one of Greece's best-research providers, Piraeus Securities has received several awards from international rating institutions.

As a founding member of the Athens Derivatives Exchange – ADEX (since 1999) Piraeus Securities maintains a leading position in all Greek Derivative Products.

Our global execution and custody capabilities extend to over 40 Exchanges worldwide with real-time execution in over 20 Electronic markets. Our advisory services have been built on a highly experienced, dedicated & specialized team which works closely with clients based on their investment targets and risk profiles.

Organizing numerous roadshows across Europe annually, we bring together the top management of Greek Corporates with institutional investors. Piraeus Securities' deep relationships with local companies give our institutional investors tailored access to gain better insight & understanding.

Our Sales and Trading team has built a valued reputation of the highest professionalism & knowledge, providing a market leading service to institutional clients.

When combined as a whole, Piraeus Securities bring together a strong, professional & focused full service brokerage firm, proudly holding one of the top positions in the local market.